

The New York Times

FOOD

Worth the Search

20 Wines for Under $20

JAN. 15, 2015

By ERIC ASIMOV

Pierre-Marie Chermette Domaine du Vissoux Beaujolais Cuvée Traditionnelle Vieilles Vignes 2013 $17

In the old days, before Beaujolais Nouveau became a phenomenon, good Beaujolais was like this: fresh with aromas and flavors of red and black fruits, slightly bitter and entirely refreshing. In a word: joyous. Nowadays, when we have great cru Beaujolais to choose from, I'm glad we also have simply delicious bottles like this. Perfect to drink in a tumbler. (Weygandt-Metzler, Unionville, Pa.)

